Annual General Meeting Summary

British Association of Gynaecological Pathologists (BAGP) Friday 5 June 2026, Royal College of Physicians, London

The Annual General Meeting of the British Association of Gynaecological Pathologists (BAGP) was held on 5 June 2026 at the Royal College of Physicians, London. Reports were presented by the President, Treasurer, General Secretary, Meetings Secretary and Trainee Representative.

The meeting highlighted continued growth in membership, record attendance at BAGP educational meetings, successful collaborations with national and international partner organisations and a strong financial position with reserves increasing from £582,000 to £669,000 over the previous year.

Two constitutional motions were presented to members for approval:

1. To increase the number of BAGP Trustees from 12 to 15.
2. To create a new Officer role of President-Elect with a two-year term.

Motion 1 received majority agreement.
Motion 2 received majority agreement.

Following approval of the motions, BAGP will proceed with implementation of the constitutional changes in consultation with its legal advisers and will submit the required amendments to the Charity Commission in accordance with CIO governance requirements.

There being no further business, the meeting was closed.
